• Clothing for Kailash Yatra:

Casual wears and comfortable walking shoes are required. Be sure to bring warm clothing as the nights and early mornings can be quite chilly to severe cold. Indian Pilgrims are strictly advised not to wear Sari. Bring all the film, medicine, cosmetics, personal toilet items etc. that you will need from home as these are difficult to obtain on the way. A small first aid kit is also a good idea to take. Also quite useful is a route map, to know where you are going and have been on each day.

• Special require for your comfort

Walking stick, Drinking water bottle, 1 trekking shoes for 3 days round & sport shoes in the bus or city walking, Mouth mask, sun hat, eye glase, cold cream and hand sanitizer.

• What to take?

Winter wear: wind proof jacket, Down jacket, raincoat or windbreakers, thermal under wears, Jackets, warm trousers & woolen shirts (cotton will also fine), warm sweaters, woolen gloves, sun hat, comfortable shoes, woolen balaclava ('monkey cap') & scarf/dust mask to protect your eyes & nose from dust.

• Bring with you/Equipment list for Kailash Yatra:

Day snacks along the way, Chocolates, dry fruits, Glucose or any kind energy bars, water bottle & water, Personal medical kit and Diamox tablet (for high altitude). Sun glasses (to protect your eyes from UV, which is especially strong in high altitude). Sun block or sun screen lotion, wet tissues (Fresh-ones are excellent to wipe off the dust), doe-spray (handy hand sanitizer round of spray in the toilet), toilet paper, torch lights & spare batteries, daypack (small shoulder bag), if needed Camera & films, Binocular.

• Health and risks:

This is one of the toughest high altitude road journeys on earth. You must be physically fit. Generally patients with asthma & heart problems have a problem to acclimatizing to high altitudes. In your interests it is essential, you should be examined by your doctor to know about your health condition and your ability to cope up with the rigor of high altitude travel to extreme cold, dust, trekking to an altitude of 5630 meter Dolma-La pas during the Kailash round.

• Risk of Altitude Sickness:

As you are traveling over high terrain, you are likely to experience symptoms and discomfort of altitude sickness (headache, loss of appetite, nausea, exhaustion, sleeplessness, breathlessness etc.) until your body adjusts to the elevation or acclimatizes. This can take a couple of days or more depending on an individual. For this reason alone, we have made it mandatory to stay 2 nights at Nyalam (12000ft). Yatris (Tourists) can also make this Kailash journey taking the flight from Kathmandu to Simikot by Helicopter/ Lhasa and Kerung city as well and it will be shorter days to make completes. Drink plenty of water, be calm, and do not exercise. Do not drink alcohol or smoke prior to and during the tour. We also recommend you carry a strip of diamox tablets. Do consult your physician on the dosage. We provide (Lifesaving oxygen cylinder with regulator and mask device in case of altitude sickness which is world class equipment for high altitude area up to Mt. Everest).

• Currency:

Important: 2000INR rupees and 500INR rupees bills are not allowed in Nepal while you are travelling in Nepal. We suggest all yatri if possible need to carry with them some US$ or 100 INR rupees bills or US$ cash. The unit of Chinese currency is Yuan. USD-1 = 6.50 Yuan. 1 Yuan = INR 13 approx.; Money can be exchange at Bank of China at Lhasa, Kerung border or Purang or from the local peoples and guide at Lhasa.

• Risks & Liability:

Himalayan Glory Travel and its associates will take its high attention always to make your journey smooth and pleasant. However, all the tours in Tibet are conducted strictly under the rules & regulation of Tibet Tourism Bureau. Therefore, Himalayan Glory Travels & Tours (P) Ltd and its counterparts shall not be responsible for any change and modification in the program due to unavoidable circumstances such as landslide, road blockage, flood, snow, political unrest, ther natural digester and cancellation of flight, delay arrival, sickness or accidents.
