Jomsom Muktinath Trek

Trip Overview

One of the most rewarding treks that comprises overall cultural, natural and adventure in one pack

Muktinath Temple Trek starting from Kathmandu where you will visit to some of the culturally rich UNESCO World Heritage Sites. Here you will get a closer look to the medieval period art and craft. You will also visit to the globally renowned Buddhist and Hindu pilgrimages.

In Pokhara, Here you will visit some extra-ordinary natural places such as lakes, caves. The view of the sunrise from Sarangkot will simply leave you speechless which is just 30mins drive from any corner of Pokhara.

The next place you will visit is the windy valley Jomsom from where your trek begins. The next day you will be at Muktinath; a holy place for both Hindu and Buddhist, standing at the elevation of 3800m. You will also get a closer look to the Thakali culture as you encounter with their ethnic tribe during your trek.

The other highlights of this trek are Bon-po Gompa, typical villages Tukuche & Marpha. Your visit to Kagbeni, Poonhill and Tatopani will be more exciting while traveling through different landscapes that will provide you an opportunity to explore various flora and faunas.
