Bungee Jumping in Nepal

Trip Overview

Extreme thrills of seconds in the air

Jumping from the bridge that lies over 160m from the raging Himalayan River with the full technical support is a sheer and short aerial adventure in Nepal. Bungee jumping is one of extra adventure funs that are a challenging sport in Nepal run by professional jumpers/drivers under the secured backup. In Nepal, we offer bungee jumps from two spots. The major bungee jumping spot is the Last Resort, the center of bungee jumping in Nepal that lies on the way to Tibet in Kodari highway near the Friendship Bridge over the Bhote Koshi River.

The newly made bungee jumping spot is nearby Pokhara caters the panorama of Annapurna mountain range and paddy fields during the short thrilling jump. For the jump, you need to book in advance to go there by private or local transport. Every bungee jump in Nepal offers the video of your jump, which would obviously be a beautiful souvenir to save it for the future.

Join our day trip for the most thrilling and the shortest aerial adventure in Nepal that is affordable for all kinds of travelers in terms of pocket, time and adrenaline hunger travelers have in Nepal.
